

Dear Romeo,

Each day my thoughts do wander unto thee. Since first our eyes did meet, my life hath turned to fairer course. Great joy doth fill my heart whenever I behold thee. When thou art near, my heart doth beat with wondrous haste; yet when thou art afar, I pine and miss thee sorely. Oft do I call to mind that gentle night when we did speak upon the balcony; that hour was most precious unto me. I know full well our houses bear ill will one toward the other, yet such discord cannot lessen that love I bear thee. Thou art of greatest import to my soul, and by thy presence my life is made more bright. Without thee I should be steeped in sorrow. At times I tremble for what fate may hold for us, yet still I trust our love is strong and steadfast. I hope that one day we may dwell together in peace. Many a dream I weave of a future shared with thee. Until that blessed day, know that I shall ever care for thee. Pray remember well: I love thee dearly. Thou shalt forever dwell within my heart, and never shall I forget thee. Thy loving

Juliet

Dear Romio I think about you every day. When we first met, my life changed. I feel very happy when I see you. When you are near me, my heart beats fast. When you are far away, I miss you a lot. I often think about the night we talked on the balcony. That moment was very special to me. I know our families do not like each other. But that does not change my love for you. You are very important to me. You make my life brighter. I would be very sad without you. Sometimes I worry about what will happen to us. But I believe our love is strong. I hope we can be together one day. I dream about a future with you. Until then, I will always care about you. Please remember that I love you. You will always be in my heart. I will never forget you. Your Juliet .
